EVERYDAY SPEECH

It's Okay to Be Wrong

We're not expected to get everything right all the time. If we knew everything, we wouldn't be in school to learn! It can feel bad or embarrassing if we get an answer wrong in class but we can learn to handle it!

How did Alessandra handle being wrong?

What do you think her classmates were thinking?

What could she have done instead?

WHAT WOULD OTHER STUDENTS BE THINKING IN EACH SITUATION

You yell at your teacher about how hard the work is

You get an answer wrong and then correct yourself

You make loud jokes about how dumb the lesson is
