Perspective Taking

Perspective Taking means seeing a situation from someone else's view. Have you ever heard of putting yourself in someone else's shoes? This means trying to see how it would feel to be them. It's important to think about how others feel because it can help when solving problems with friends.

Problem Solving

Problems come up in everyone's day. Sometimes they are big and sometimes they are small. When problems happen, we need to think about how we can solve them so we can move forward with our day. We can solve problems by taking someone else's perspective, compromising, and talking to each other.

Empathy

Empathy is understanding and caring about how another person is feeling. Empathy can help us know what to say and how to act. Have you ever had a hard time knowing how someone was feeling? Did it make it difficult to know what to say to them? It is important to work on understanding empathy so we can show others that we can be good friends.

USE A PENCIL AND PAPERCLIP TO CREATE A SPINNER WITH THE CIRCLE BELOW. EACH TIME YOU LAND ON A SITUATION, SHARE WHAT YOU THINK OF HOW THAT PERSON MAY BE FEELING.

Feelings in the Classroom

People have lots of different feelings. Sometimes they are happy, other times they are sad. Maybe they are excited, nervous, or confused. Knowing different emotions can help us understand what we need to say someone or know how to act.

USE A PENCIL AND PAPERCLIP TO CREATE A SPINNER WITH THE CIRCLE BELOW. EACH TIME YOU LAND ON A SITUATION, TELL WHICH EMOTION YOU THINK THAT PERSON IS FEELING.

When was a time that you felt happy, nervous, angry, or confused?

How many different emotions do you know?
