EVERYDAY SPEECH

Laughing With Not At

When people laugh with us, they are being friendly and it is okay. When people laugh AT another person, it can be mean and hurt people's feelings. The difference is WHO is laughing.

How did you know the group was laughing at Mike?

How did it make Mike feel when the group laughed at him?

How can you tell that the group was laughing with Mike?

IN EACH SITUATION TELL IF THE GROUP IS LAUGHING WITH OR AT A PERSON

1. A group realizes they missed the beginning of the movie by 20 minutes. They all laugh at their mistake.
2. Rob eats two pieces of cake at lunch. Tom calls him fat and the group all laughs.
3. Tim brought the wrong homework to English class. He starts laughing and Mark joins in.
