Everyday Speech

PROXIMITY

Proximity means how close or far we are. When we talk to people we want the perfect amount of space. We shouldn't be too close or too far.

1. Why do you think it matters how close or far we are when we talk to people?
2. What is a trick to help see how close we should be to someone when we talk?

DISCUSS EACH QUESTION BELOW

Tell a time you can get closer to someone

Tell a time you would talk to someone from a further distance

How would you feel if someone invaded your personal space?
