

Name : _____ Date: _____

Everyday Speech

ACCEPTING A CONSEQUENCE

There can be good or bad consequences for our actions. If we have a consequence that makes us upset it doesn't feel very good. How can we keep control?

1. What is a consequence?
2. Did Christine accept her consequence the first time? How did her actions make the other students feel?
3. How did Christine make her situation better when she accepted her consequence?

DISCUSS WHAT EACH PERSON SHOULD DO

1. David got in trouble earlier.
Now he doesn't feel like doing his work.

2. Nina hurt her friends feelings and now they don't want to sit with her. She tells them they are mean.

3. Tim has been told he cannot use the computer today. He really wants to use it.