Everyday Speech

SPEAKING TOO FAST

There are many times we speak faster than usual, like when we are excited. We have to remember to slow down. If we talk too fast, others won't be able to understand what we say.

1. What was Christine trying to tell Devin about?
2. How did Devin respond when Christine talked too fast?
3. How did Devin respond when Christine talked slow enough for him to understand? Were they able to have a conversation back and forth?

FOLLOW THE DIRECTIONS BELOW

1. Say this sentence at a rate that is too fast: When we go to the beach I don't like to swim.
2. Say this sentence at a rate that is too slow: When we go to the beach I don't like to swim.
3. Say this sentence at a rate that is just right: When we go to the beach I don't like to swim.
