BEING TOO HONEST

There are times we should be honest with others and times when we will hurt their feelings if we are too honest. Think about the difference between those times.

Read and answer each question below. Think about when to be honest and when it would hurt others' feelings.

How was Leah too honest with Rachel?

How did Leah change what she said in order to not hurt Rachel's feelings?

What should you say if a friend asks if you like their haircut but you don't?

What can you say if a friend asks you to get lunch but you're not hungry?

What should you say if your friend tells you they didn't do well at tryouts?
