

Name: _____

Date: _____

REPAIR THE CONVERSATION

Each Repair the Conversation video models a conversation that gets derailed by an unexpected comment or action. Watch each scenario to see how the conversation is halted and how the characters fix it.

At each step along the way, pause along with the video to discuss the steps of the problem and figure out how to get the conversation running smoothly again.

Fill in each section of the worksheet along with the video. Feel free to pause at each step to further discuss the action, character's feelings, and consequences. Brainstorm along with the characters in the video to repair each conversation.

When the discussion logo is shown , we suggest pausing to discuss what you have seen. Don't hesitate to rewind the video and watch multiple times!

Name: _____

Date: _____

REPAIR THE CONVERSATION

Read and answer each question below.

1. When did Madison realize that the conversation was off the tracks?

2. What clues did Connor give that he felt upset by the conversation?

3. When did the conversation go off track?

4. Why did Connor feel upset?

5. How did Madison repair the conversation?

6. How did Connor feel when Madison changed the subject?

7. Have you ever had to change the conversation topic to make someone feel better?

8. Imagine you got a good grade on a test and tell your friend about it but then you notice they got a poor grade. How would you repair the conversation?
