

Name: _____

Date: _____

FOLLOWING CLASSROOM DISCUSSIONS

We need to follow along in class discussions even if we aren't called on. This helps us to learn and stay involved.

Encircle the letter of the correct answer.

1. What was Jack having trouble with?

- A. Listening
- B. Focusing
- C. Both A and B

2. What happened when Jack didn't follow along?

- A. He got in trouble
- B. He couldn't answer the questions
- C. He got a bad grade

3. When do we need to follow along?

- A. Only when others talk to us
- B. Only if the teacher calls on us
- C. Through all class discussion

4. What was Jack thinking about at first?

- A. His favorite show
- B. His favorite movie
- C. Kids in his class

5. Who should Jack talk to if he's having trouble focusing?

- A. His friends
- B. The school nurse
- C. His teacher

6. When else should we follow along and focus?

- A. When the teacher is teaching
- B. When students ask questions
- C. Both A and B

7. What did Jack do differently the second time?

- A. Asked the teacher for help
- B. Shouted out all the answers
- C. Tried to answer all the questions in his head

8. Why was it helpful to listen when the teacher called on others?

- A. Both B and C
- B. He can learn from their answers
- C. He might have the same question

9. What does it look like to be distracted?

- A. Looking around the room
- B. Looking at your school work
- C. Looking straight ahead

10. What would help you the most if you had a hard time focusing in school?

- A. Ask to take a break
- B. Get some water
- C. Put distracting things away