

Name : _____

Date: _____

EVERYDAY SPEECH

Using Clues in Conversation

In this lesson, we teach how to observe the person in front of you and use those clues to have a conversation. Looking at someone's t-shirt or notebooks can be a great way to get some clues about what they like.

What didn't Serena do?

How did it make Chris and Bobby feel?

What could Serena have done instead?

WRITE DOWN 2 THINGS YOU WOULD SAY TO THIS PERSON

A girl holding a soccer
ball

A boy wearing a shirt with music
notes

A kid
reading a comic book

Empty dashed box for writing a response.

Empty dashed box for writing a response.

Empty dashed box for writing a response.