EVERYDAY SPEECH

Not Getting your Way

We can't always get our way. How will other people feel if you always try to control the situation. Part of being friends and working with other people is being able to compromise.

What did Alessandra do when she didn't get her way?

How did it make the group feel?

What might happen if Alessandra always yells at her friends?

HOW COULD EACH PERSON COMPROMISE IN EACH SITUATION BELOW

Mariah wants to see a scary movie but her friends want to see a funny one.

1.

Josh wants to play video games but his sister is using the only TV.

2.

Billy is sharing a pizza with friends. He is really hungry and wants to take more slices.

3.
