

Act Like You're Interested

Introduction

Name: _____

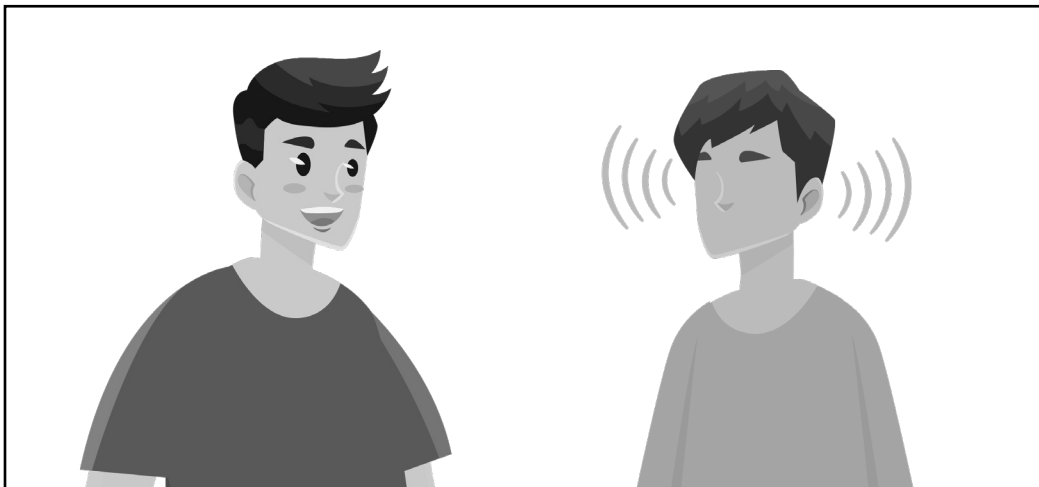

Date: _____

1 Name a topic that bores you, but interests someone else.

2 Name a topic that might bore others after a while, but it interests you.

3 Why do we fake our interest when we're not interested in what people are telling us?

4 How should our face look while we're listening?

Act Like You're Interested

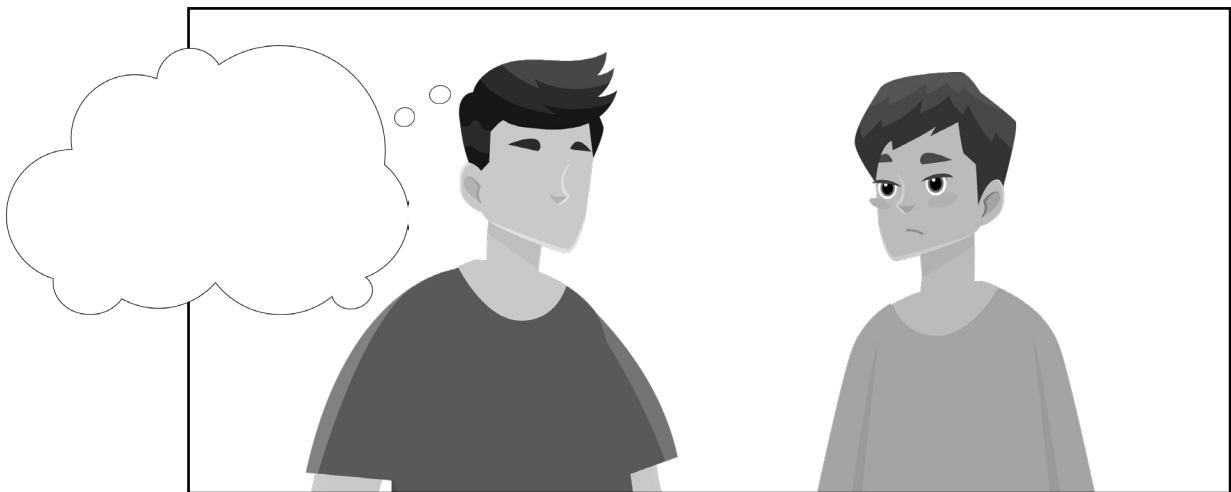

Introduction

5

What are some natural things we can do with our body or head to show we're interested?

6

How would others feel if we show them we're bored with their conversation?

7

If someone talks for a long time, is it alright to give them very small clues that we're losing interest, like saying, "Well, I better get going," or glancing away from their face?
