

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Everyday Speech

VIDEO COMPANION WORKSHEET

BLURTING

It can be difficult to keep our thoughts in our head when we feel really excited. If we blurt these thoughts out, it can make others feel frustrated.

Read and answer each question below.

1. How did Jack feel when Madison blurted out the answer?

2. Was Madison trying to bother Jack or was she just excited?

3. How does blurting make the teacher feel?

4. Why is it unfair if one person blurts out all the answers?

5. When was a time you blurted out while someone else was talking?

6. What is something that helps you remember not to blurt?

7. Why would someone blurting out bother the rest of the class?

8. What is another time you should keep something in your head?

9. Why shouldn't we blurt out in class?

10. Why is important to think about time and place?
