

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

Everyday Speech

VIDEO COMPANION WORKSHEET

SOCIAL CHAMELEON

Being a social chameleon means you blend in and adapt to any situation, no matter what's going on around you. We change the way we behave depending on where we are and who is there. It is important to observe our surroundings to help us figure out how we should act.

Mark an X in the box beside the correct answer.

1. How did Zack's friends feel after school?

- Hungry
- Tired
- Goofy

2. How did Zack feel after school?

- Angry
- Bored
- Energetic

3. How did Zack's friends feel when he pushed them to play basketball?

- Jealous
- Annoyed
- Angry

4. What would a Social Chameleon do to fit in with his friends' mood?

- Keep asking to play what he wants
- Listen to his friends and agree on something everyone wants to do
- Go play by himself

5. Which example is not being a Social Chameleon?

- You are always deciding what game to play with friends
- You are asking your friends what game they want to play
- Compromising with a friend to play a game you both want