

Asking Others to Play

Children use play as a tool for learning about their environment and how to interact with their peers. Learning to initiate play with others is essential for creating fun and engaging interactions with peers both inside and outside of the classroom.

START

Put our bodies close to them

Use eye contact and greet them

Ask them to play with us.

You can bring over a toy or suggest something to play!