

Ending a Conversation

A smooth ending or wind-down is extremely important when having a conversation. If a conversation ends too abruptly or lingers too long, it sends our conversation partners negative messages.

Here are some things you can say to politely end a conversation:

1 It was nice talking to you, bye!

2 See you later!

3 Thanks for talking, bye!

4 I've gotta go, let's talk later!

5 I loved catching up, goodbye!
